The rules have been scrutinised Some verbal changes have been made in the Secretariat draft These have been initialled

Under License fees, the draft provides Rs 3, for aerated water manufactures It is suggested this may be raised to Rs 5/- The reason is obvious It must be worth a man's while to start the business A low fee therefore will not keep out the impecuneous speculators

Under I General 1(a) After sufficiently spacious, add adequately ventilated and lighted and otherwise'

Under I General 1(b) After sufficient supply of, add 'wholesome'

Under meat stalls, a clause something like the following may be added

He shall not employ in the stall any person suffering from contageous infections or loathsome disease

The rules, subject to the above suggestions may be adopted

Director of Health

The above suggestions have been incorporated in the rules
